

Maryland Association of Human Relations/Rights Agencies

MARYLAND HUMAN RIGHTS DAY 2018

Sponsored by

THE MARYLAND ASSOCIATION OF HUMAN RELATIONS/ HUMAN RIGHTS AGENCIES (MAHRA)

Maryland Civil Rights Commission, Anne Arundel County Human Relations Commission, City of Annapolis Human Relations Commission, Baltimore City Office of Civil Rights, Baltimore County Human Relations Commission, City of Cumberland Human Relations Commission, Frederick County Human Relations Commission, Harford County Human Relations Commission, Howard County Office of Human Rights, Montgomery County Office of Human Rights, Prince George's County Human Relations Commission

THE COALITION OPPOSED TO VIOLENCE & EXTREMISM (COVE)

THE CIVIL RIGHTS COALITION OF MARYLAND

TUESDAY, MARCH 13th 2018

10:00 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Lowe House Office Building – Room 145

6 Bladen Street

Annapolis, Maryland 21401

Valid ID needed to enter building*

Featuring a Panel of Distinguished Guests & Elected Officials

REGISTER HERE

(Space is limited)

For more information please contact:

Michele Masters, Office Manager

Baltimore City Office of Civil Rights

michele.masters@baltimorecity.gov

443-984-2654

A Continental Breakfast & Lunch will be served

Maryland Association of Human Relations/Rights Agencies

ABOUT MAHRA

Mission

The Mission of the Maryland Association of Human Relations/Rights Agencies (MAHRA) is to serve as a clearinghouse for sharing civil and human relations/rights, and EEO information among state, local, and national human rights commissions and organizations.

Members

Alvin O. Gillard, Maryland Commission on Civil Rights

Anne Arundel County

Jill P. Carter, Baltimore City

Marsha Parham, Baltimore County

Miles Ward, Frederick County

Susan Fisher, Harford County

Reverend Dr. Barbara J. Sands, Howard County

James Stowe, Montgomery County

D. Michael Lyles, Prince George's County

THANK YOU TO OUR CO-SPONSORS

The Civil Rights Coalition of Maryland

The Civil Rights Coalition of Maryland is a group of member organizations and leaders that work within the state to advance civil rights for all Marylanders, with a primary focus on government action. The Coalition works for the establishment and enforcement of these rights in law, and for the realization of social and economic conditions in which the fulfillment of these rights is enhanced.

The Coalition Opposed to Violence & Extremism (COVE)

The Coalition Opposed to Violence and Extremism is an alliance of public and private civil rights organizations, community human relations, law enforcement, advocacy, religious and educational organizations in Maryland and the Washington, D.C. area. Founded in 1979, COVE pursues activities that oppose, resist and eliminate bigotry, prejudice, violence and extremism based on race, religion, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation and disability. The organization is also committed to fostering an understanding and tolerance amongst diverse groups in the community.